

Gold Member Slaney Foods

About the Company

Slaney Foods International, situated in Bunclody, Co. Wexford, has been part of Ireland’s beef story for over 50 years. Employing approximately 500 people in the heart of the Slaney Valley - one of Ireland’s prime farming regions, the company has developed strong and successful long-term relationships with a variety of customers, including leading multiples and foodservice companies throughout Ireland, the UK, Europe and worldwide. Slaney Foods is dedicated to working in partnership with farmers to produce top-class grass-fed beef. The company ensures that livestock is sourced from farms that uphold the highest animal welfare and environmental standards to offer a product range of superb quality, prepared precisely to customers’ specifications. Slaney Foods International is now ABP Slaney and part of the ABP Food Group.

Spotlight Target Area: Social Sustainability

Slaney Foods has attained Origin Green Gold Membership for the third consecutive year, demonstrating the highest standards of environmental performance across all areas of its business.

Throughout 2021, the member continued to excel, demonstrating an exemplary performance in the target areas of Raw Materials Certification, Water, Waste, Product Health & Nutrition, Employee Wellbeing, and Community Engagement.

Within the Raw Materials Certification target area, over 99% of Slaney Foods’ supply was certified to Bord Bia’s Sustainable Beef & Lamb Assurance Scheme (SBLAS). The member supplemented this target by running a programme for suppliers in the Wexford, Wicklow and Carlow regions which promotes the importance of grassland management for good animal performance.

“We carry an enormous responsibility to protect our global environment for future generations. Our retention of Gold Member Status in Origin Green is a confirmation of the continuous improvement that we are committed to achieving year by year. This is so important to our consumers as they enjoy our quality Irish beef, giving them the guarantee and reassurance that this is food produced by farmers and processors dedicated to global sustainability.”
